

BE A PART OF
KILLINGTON MUSIC FESTIVAL'S
28TH SEASON

Dear Business Owner,

In anticipation of summer and the 28th season of The Killington Music Festival, it is once again time to ask you for your support.

Please take advantage of the wonderful advertising opportunity available in our Summer Program. We celebrated 27 years this past season and were both pleased and proud that our concert series and residency program were tremendously successful. Our world-renowned faculty was exceptional in their performances and our students were dazzling in theirs. Our concerts were well attended and received rave reviews by all.

The Killington Music Festival will bring world-class chamber music to Central Vermont for its twenty-eighth season. Since its first season of sponsoring just three concerts, the Festival has grown to include an outstanding Saturday concert series, a student concert series, and a six-week residency program for talented students. We are very proud of our expanding student outreach concerts. The primary audiences for this project continues to be residents in nursing homes, assisted living facilities and the children who most often are deprived of music and it's benefits. Through these concerts hundreds of elderly and young Vermonters in Rutland County have their lives enriched.

I believe you understand the importance of the arts, as well as the recognition your business can receive through an association with the performing arts. We know how much our patrons understand the value of your contribution and we strongly urge them to support your business.

All advertisers will be entitled to two tickets to a Saturday night concert.

Thank you for your support.

With kind regards,

Maria Napolitano Fish
Executive Director
